

By holding an event with us, you are agreeing to our policies below.

TICKETING & ENTRY

- The Abercrombie will hold space for all presale ticket purchases.
- Promoters can sell up to 600 presale tickets. There is capacity for additional door sales which will be assessed on the night between the promoter and venue management.
- The Abercrombie aims to create opportunities and accessibility for First Nations communities to attend all of our events. We have a limited ticket allocation for complimentary entry for First Nations people to all of our club events. Guests can complete the form via our website prior to the event to be added to the guest list. We encourage you to communicate this to your audience prior to your event.
- To allow for additional door sales we can only permit re-entry subject to venue capacity.
- The Abercrombie reserves the right to extend all areas access for VIP's, service recovery, staff or friends of the venue at any time. This allocation will not affect your capacity for ticket sales.
- Door price may change on the night based on guest flow. Change to current door price is to be communicated with front door staff and security.
- Ticket check in is set up at the entrance to the club. Promoters and door staff are not to interfere with guest movement.

VENUE

- Music in the level one Sunroom must turn off at 4:45am.
- Casa Rosa is our cocktail bar located on level 2 with bar service finishing at 2am. This space is separate to the club space but uses the same bathrooms on level 1. The capacity of Casa Rosa will not affect the club capacity. We reserve the right to permit patrons on our top two floors at any time.

OVERNIGHT PARTIES

- Overnight parties (parties beyond our usual hours of 10pm - 5am) are subject to approval by The Abercrombie GM and Group Entertainment Manager.
- If your party time extends beyond 6am, you as the promoter are required to cover fifty percent of the security costs for each hour there is less than 150 people in the venue post 6am (approx. $500ph).
- Overnight parties may presell to our full capacity of 525 with door sales available throughout the night, subject to capacity.
- Overnight parties must be free after 10am on day two. Exceptions to this are for parties that would continue later than 12pm.

THEMING & DECORATIONS

- Theming can be bumped in, subject to approval. Theming and decoartions cannot be hung from any points on the lighting rig in the club space, please use rigging points provided. Theming cannot make any permanent modifications or damage to the venue. This includes 3M tape, hooks etc. If you are not sure, please consult one of the venue team prior. Breach of this may result in covering the cost of damages.
